METROPOLIS OF SAN FRANCISCO

The Epistle Reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 2:10-16

Brethren, glory and honor and peace for every one who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. All who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. When Gentiles who have not the law do by nature what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness and their conflicting thoughts accuse or perhaps excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus.

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew 4:18-23

At that time, as Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately they left their nets and followed him. And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left their boat and their father, and followed him. And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people.

For our Visitors this morning!

If this is your first visit to an Orthodox Christian liturgy we welcome you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and pray that you will be edified through your participation this morning! The Eastern Orthodox Church traces her lineage back to the Day of Pentecost and the birth of the New Testament Church. We are liturgical in worship, using the liturgies developed in the fourth century by St. John Chrysostom, St. Basil the Great, and St. Gregory the Theologian (during weekdays of Great Lent.) We are the "Church of the Bible" since it was in the bosom of the Church that the NT Canon of Holy Scripture was birthed. We are hierarchical in structure in that we are organized under the ancient structure of the Patriarchies of the original Sees of Antioch, Jerusalem, Constantinople, Alexandria, and, by the 11th century, Russia. We are Eucharistic in that the apex of our worship experience is to commune with God in the Body and Blood of Christ as He Himself taught as recorded in St. John's Gospel, chapter six. We ask that you will join us at the conclusion of the Divine Service for our fellowship meal in the hall next door. Please also note that Holy Communion in the Orthodox Christian tradition is reserved for those Orthodox Christian who have prepared themselves to receive the Holy Mysteries. We do invite you to receive the blessed bread which is offered to all after the dismissal. May the Lord richly bless your worship with us in this morning's Divine Liturgy!

RESURRECTIONAL APOLYTIKION IN TONE ONE

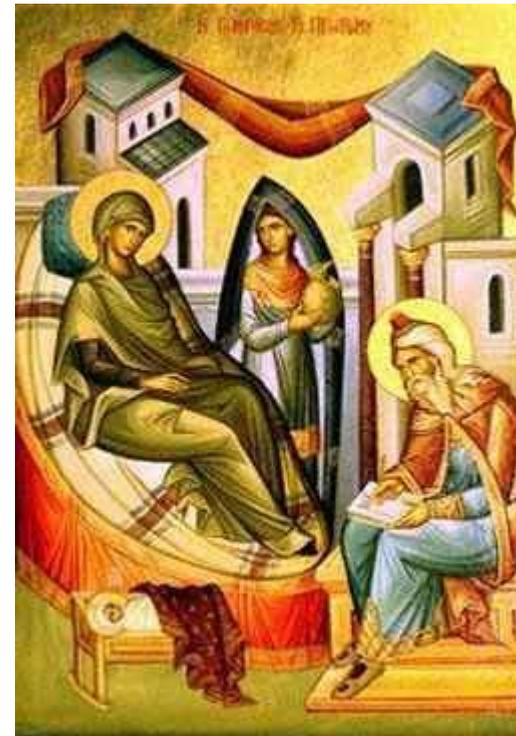

While the stone was sealed by the Jews, and the soldiers were guarding Thy most pure body, Thou didst arise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world. For which cause the heavenly powers cried aloud unto Thee, O giver of life. Glory to Thy Resurrection O Christ, glory to Thy kingdom, glory to Thy providence, O Thou Who alone art the lover of mankind.

APOLYTIKION OF ST. GEORGE

Liberator of captives, defender of the poor, physician of the sick, and champion of kings, O trophy-bearer, Great Martyr George, intercede with Christ God that our souls be saved.

KONTAKION FOR ORDINARY SUNDAYS IN TONE TWO

O protection of Christians that cannot be put to shame, mediation unto the Creator most constant, O despise not the suppliant voices of those who have sinned; but be thou quick, O good one, to come unto our aid, who in faith cry unto thee: Hasten to intercession, and speed thou to make supplication, thou who dost ever protect, O Theotokos, them that honor thee.

The Nativity of the Forerunner John the Baptist (June 24)

He that was greater than all who are born of women, the Prophet who received God's testimony that he surpassed all the Prophets, was born of the aged and barren Elizabeth (Luke 1: 7) and filled all his kinsmen, and those that lived round about, with gladness and wonder. But even more wondrous was that which followed on the eighth day when he was circumcised, that is, the day on which a male child receives his name. Those present called him Zacharias, the name of his father. But the mother said, "Not so, but he shall be called John." Since the child's father was unable to speak, he was asked, by means of a sign, to indicate the child's name. He then asked for a tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And immediately Zacharias' mouth was opened, his tongue was loosed from its silence of nine months, and filled with the Holy Spirit, he blessed the God of Israel, Who had fulfilled the promises made to their fathers, and had visited them that were sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, and had sent to them the light of salvation. Zacharias prophesied concerning the child also, saying that he would be a Prophet of the Most High and Forerunner of Jesus Christ. And the child John, who was filled with grace, grew and waxed strong in the Spirit; and he was in the wilderness until the day of his showing to Israel (Luke 1:57-80). His name is a variation of the Hebrew "Johanan," which means "Yah is gracious."

A Note From Father Jeffrey—

The Apostles Fast began Monday June 16th. This Fast was instituted by the Church in honor of, and thanksgiving for, the bold witness of the Apostles, and their suffering of persecution as they preached the Gospel throughout all the world. Fish, wine, and oil are allowed on all days, excepting Wednesdays and Fridays. Let us remember that the immediate aim of fasting is to attain purity of heart, and consider these words of Abba Moses to John Cassian: "The gain from fasting will not balance [a] loss from anger, nor is the profit from reading so great as the harm which results from despising a brother. Those things which are of secondary importance, such as fastings, vigils, withdrawal from the world, meditation on Scripture, we ought to practice with a view to our main object, i.e., purity of heart, which is charity...Since it will not be of the slightest use to have done everything, if this main reason...be removed, for the sake of which everything is to be done." (St. John Cassian, Conferences, Ch.VII)
